Spouse Success

There is no rest for success.

Congratulations, Natalie

Let's congratulate Natalie on her new job at Accenture!

Hiring Challenge:

I wasn't receiving responses after applying for positions and trying to target my resume.

Assistance Received:

The MSCCN team, including my employment specialist Angelene, provided resume reviews, helped me search for roles I qualified for, and helped me practice for interviews. I was able to target my resume and know how to respond to interviewer questions in a way that highlighted my value.

Value of Experience:

The most helpful aspect of MSCCN is having someone in your corner who understands the challenges frequently experienced by military spouses. Having a resource who is a sounding board and advocate is awesome.

We want YOU to be our next success!
